

Do You Remember Who You Are?

by Gary Malkin

The sun comes up
I hear a cry
A baby's born
I see her light
You're made of grace
And a whispered star

Do you remember who you are?

You take first steps
And we fall each day
We take that breath, to go run away
We're made of hope
And a whispered star

Do you remember who you are?

We plant a seed
And watch it grow
A flower blooms
But the petals know
We're a flash of light
And a whispered star

Do you remember?
Will you remember?
Will we remember?

Who we are!!
